4.3 How we protect your money

- 4.3.1 Where we are providing Money Remittance Services and receive a payment from you which constitutes Relevant Funds, we will safeguard your funds by placing them in one of the dedicated segregated bank accounts we hold at our bank. We keep safeguarding your funds until you spend or withdraw those funds in accordance with this Agreement.

- 4.3.2 The funds which we safeguard are not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. However, if we became insolvent, you would be paid out your funds from safeguarded funds, subject to the payment of any mandatory insolvency related costs.

5 Information Prior To and During the Provision of Services

- 5.1 In accordance with the Payment Services Regulations, GCEN is required to give various items of information to its Clients prior to providing them with Money Remittance Services. The parties confirm that such information is deemed to be provided in this Agreement.
- 5.2 If the Client so requests at any time during this Agreement, GCEN will provide the Client with a copy of this Agreement.

6 The Services

- 6.1 The Services shall be limited to the FOREX Services, and the Money Remittance Services.

6.2 GCEN shall record in writing the details of all orders or instructions, whether communicated orally or in writing, for each Transaction entered into in the course of providing the FOREX Services and shall send a copy to the Client at the time the Transaction is concluded between the parties (“Confirmation Email”). The Confirmation Email will include details of applicable exchange rates and any other key commercial terms relating to the Transaction. Such Confirmation Email will form part of the legal contract between GCEN and the Client in respect of the relevant Transaction.

7 The FOREX Services

7.1 Where providing FOREX Services, GCEN shall unless otherwise agreed, contract as principal with the Client for the delivery of the currency or payment in question and deal with the Client on an execution only basis.

7.2 Where providing FOREX Services, GCEN may provide the Client with information concerning the foreign exchange markets, but will not at any time offer advice to the Client on taxation, investment products or markets or the merits or otherwise of any currency or money remittance, and

7.2.1 the Client accepts that any such information does not constitute advice and does not form part of the Services and agrees that it shall rely purely on its own judgement when entering into any Transaction; and

7.2.2 in providing the information referred to above, GCEN makes no warranty or representation as to its accuracy, and is not liable to the Client in relation to the use made of such information.

- 7.3 Each order for Services shall stand as a separate Transaction. GCEN has the right to cancel any Transaction for FOREX Services at any time, where GCEN becomes aware of any pricing error in providing the Client with the correct exchange rate for that Transaction, and the Client is or should reasonably be aware of such error, by providing the Client a full refund of any amount that may have been charged (including any fees or charges) to the Client for the purposes of processing the Transaction its original currency.
- 7.4 In respect of Transactions for FOREX Services, the Client acknowledges and agrees that:
- 7.4.1 the Client will buy the currency required from GCEN at the exchange rate prevailing on the day that the Transaction for FOREX Services is concluded between the parties, and then take physical delivery of the purchased currency, and pay the full amount of the sold currency on the Settlement Date;
 - 7.4.2 once concluded, the Client shall settle each Transaction for FOREX Services as agreed with GCEN, unless GCEN agrees (in its sole discretion) to amend any terms of such a Transaction in writing;
 - 7.4.3 Forward Contracts must be entered into for a purpose that is not related (wholly or partially) to any trading or investment activity;
 - 7.4.4 before performing any Forward Contract GCEN may request any additional information that it requires from the Client in order to determine that the requested Forward Contract is both:

(i) connected to a payment transaction and

(ii) out of scope of FSMA and MIFID.

The Client agrees that GCEN may, without any liability to you whatsoever, refuse to execute any Forward Contract in respect of which the Client has not provided the required information in accordance with this clause;

7.4.5 any Forward Contract may be cancelled by GCEN in accordance with clauses 7.3 or 8.5 at any time.

7.5 The Client acknowledges and agrees that: the Settlement Date for each Spot FX Transaction shall be agreed between the parties at the time of concluding that Spot FX Transaction, and shall be no later than two (2) Trading Days from the conclusion of the Spot FX Transaction save where one or more of the currencies traded is not a Major Currency, in which case the time of concluding that Spot FX Transactions will be the standard delivery period generally accepted in the market for the relevant currency pair.

8 Margin for Transactions for FOREX Services

8.1 From time to time, GCEN may require the Client to post funds ("Margin") as security for GCEN entering into one or more Forward Contracts. Prior to this requirement, GCEN will provide the Client, in writing, with the terms on which it provides credit to the Client and when it requires Margin to be posted ("FX Credit Terms").

8.2 If GCEN determines, in its sole discretion, that (a) the net market value of all of the Client's open Forward Contracts has declined and the unrealised loss when marked to market exceeds the amount of the current Margin set out in the FX Credit Terms, or (b) the risk of GCEN providing Forward Contracts to the Client has increased for any reason, the Client shall post a revised Margin with GCEN in the amount calculated in accordance with the FX Credit Terms.

- 8.3 Payment of any amount of Margin is due on or before the Business Day following the date GCEN provides written notice to the Client of its request for payment of Margin (such notice, a “Margin Call”).
- 8.4 Notwithstanding clauses 8.1 and 8.2, GCEN may (in its sole discretion) make additional Margin Calls to the Client in any amount and at any time.
- 8.5 If GCEN does not receive the amount of Margin requested in a Margin Call when due, GCEN, in its sole discretion, may close out any or all of the Client’s open Forward Contracts and apply the proceeds of such Forward Contracts to reimburse GCEN for all amounts due to it under such Transactions, including all realised losses;
- 8.6 If, after such application of proceeds, there is a positive balance in favour of the Client, GCEN will, upon written request of the Client, remit the balance of the proceeds to the Client within 7 Business Days of receiving such a request.
- 8.7 If the proceeds of such Transactions are insufficient to fully satisfy all amounts the Client owes to GCEN, the Client shall pay to GCEN the amount of such shortfall on or before the Business Day following the date of being notified of such shortfall.
- 8.8 The value of a Forward Contract shall be marked to market by GCEN using its internal GCEN systems.

- 8.9 Any Margin paid to GCEN by the Client, or on the Client's behalf, will be used to secure or cover all the Client's present or future, actual or contingent, obligations to GCEN in respect of Forward Contracts under this Agreement. GCEN shall acquire full ownership of such Margin upon receipt and shall not hold any Margin on the Client's behalf (whether on trust or otherwise) and GCEN may deal with such Margin as its own funds. In the event of GCEN's insolvency, the Client shall rank as a general creditor of GCEN in relation to any Margin paid to GCEN.
- 8.10 GCEN will owe the Client a debt equal to the amount of Margin received by GCEN, as reduced by any set-off rights under, or other terms of, this Agreement or under general law.
- 8.11 GCEN shall pay to the Client all or part of any amount of Margin transferred to GCEN by the Client under this Agreement if GCEN considers, in its sole discretion, that the amount of Margin transferred to it exceeds the amount required by GCEN to secure or cover all the Client's present or future, actual or contingent, obligations to GCEN under this Agreement or otherwise.
- 8.12 The Client is not entitled to receive any interest on Margin delivered to GCEN.
- 8.13 In certain circumstances, it will not be possible for GCEN to provide FX Credit Terms prior to entry into a Forward Contract. In such a case, if a significant exchange rate fluctuation occurs between the date on which a particular Forward Contract is placed and (if different) the value date for the transaction to which such Forward Contract relates, GCEN may request the Client to provide additional funds to maintain the value and level thereof at the stipulated percentage rate on the original Forward Contract note. Such funds shall be paid in full by the Client on or before the business day following the date of request.

9 Creating an Account

- 10.2 GCEN may disable Login Details at any time and at GCEN's sole discretion if an Authorised User or the Client has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this Agreement, or if it reasonably suspects that there has been unauthorised or fraudulent use of the Client's Login Details or the security of the Client's Login Details have been otherwise compromised. The Client is responsible for any activities that occur under its Account including the activities of Authorised Users.
- 10.3 Whenever applicable, GCEN encourages the Client to use "strong" passwords (passwords that use a combination of upper and lower case letters, numbers and symbols) with its Account.
- 10.4 If the Client has any concerns about the Login Details for its Account or thinks they have been lost, stolen, misappropriated or misused, or is aware of any other actual or potential security breach, the Client must notify GCEN immediately at compliance@gcpartners.co. Following receipt of such notification, GCEN will disable such Login Details.
- 10.5 The Client must take reasonable precautions to prevent any unauthorised access to, or use of, the Services and, in the event of any such unauthorised access or use, promptly notify GCEN.

12 Instructions and Communications

- 12.1 All communications between the Client and GCEN, in either direction, shall be in English.
- 12.2 GCEN may, at its absolute discretion, accept or refuse (without being liable for any claims, loss of profits, depletion of goodwill or damage, and whether direct, consequential or anticipated) any order for Services or any instruction relating to Services from any officer, employee or agent of the Client.

- 12.3 Where only certain named personnel are authorised by the Client to place orders and give instructions to GCEN for Services, an “Authorised User” list shall be maintained and form part of this Agreement, and where such a list is annexed, GCEN shall only deal with those authorised persons.

In the case of a written order or instruction, the Client must use their personalised security credentials to log in to the Portal, in order to be permitted to place the order or instruction. In the case of an oral order or instruction, the Client must call GCEN using the telephone number provided by GCEN, and will give their personalised security credentials, in order to be permitted to place the order or instruction. GCEN is entitled to require the Client to confirm oral orders or instructions in writing prior to executing the same. Alternatively, GCEN may itself confirm in writing any orally communicated order or instruction for Services, and if so, this shall be final and conclusive evidence of the order or the instruction in question.
- 12.6 The Client may also set up a recurring order for FOREX Services and Money Remittance Services where funds are received from the Client for the sole purpose of transferring a corresponding amount to a third party or to another payment services provider acting on behalf of the third party (a “Recurring Order”). Unless the Client notifies GCEN of any error or omission in relation to such information within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt, the Client shall be deemed to have agreed and accepted the accuracy of all such reported information and it will be legally binding on the Client.

12.11 The Client may cancel any Transaction at any time before the start of the Business Day on which it is due to be paid. The Client cannot cancel a Transaction after it has been made. This means that the Client cannot ask GCEN to cancel a Transaction that the Client asks GCEN to make instantly

12.12 In the event of any significant exchange rate fluctuations occurring between the date on which a particular Transaction is executed and (if different) the value date for the transaction to which such Transaction relates, GCEN may require the Client to provide additional funds to maintain the value and level thereof at the stipulated percentage rate on the original Transaction note. Such funds shall be paid by the Client immediately and in full.

12.13 If the Client considers that GCEN has executed an instruction in its name which it has not originated, it shall notify GCEN forthwith. In accordance with the Payment Services

Regulations, there are certain circumstances in which GCEN will be liable to the Client where a money remittance has been incorrectly executed and in those circumstances GCEN will without delay refund the amount of the non-executed or defective money remittance and where applicable refund to the Client the relevant amount. Further details can be obtained from GCEN.

- 12.14 Requests for refunds must be made within eight (8) weeks from the date on which the funds were remitted by GCEN. GCEN shall have the right to require the Client to provide further information and refuse the refund until such information is received.
- 12.15 A Client is entitled to redress from GCEN for unauthorised money remittance, non-execution or defective or late execution of money remittance, but only if the Client has not acted fraudulently, has taken all reasonable steps to keep safe personalised security credentials relating to a payment instrument and notifies GCEN without undue delay on becoming aware of any unauthorised money remittance (and in any event no later than thirteen (13) months after the Client becomes aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed money remittance). Notification must be made in writing to info@GCPartners.co.
- 12.16 The Client will be liable for losses incurred in respect of unauthorised Transactions arising from its misappropriation of its security details, unless and until the Client informs GCEN, in accordance with this Agreement, that there has been a security breach.
- 12.17 GCEN is liable to the Client for the correct execution of money remittance unless it can prove to the Client, and where relevant, the payee's payment service provider, that the payee's payment service provider received the amount of the money remittance, subject to the conditions in the Payment Services Regulations.

12.18 The Client will always be liable for all losses incurred in respect of Transactions where the Client has:

12.18.1 acted fraudulently; or

12.18.2 failed to comply with this Agreement.

13 GCEN's Fees and Charges

13.1 GCEN's fees and charges for providing the Services to the Client will be provided to the Client during the registration process or, for transaction-specific fees and charges, before the Client submits an order for Services.

13.2 GCEN reserves the right to modify the fees and charges made for the Services from time to time. GCEN will give the Client written notice of not less than seven (7) days before introducing any such modifications, unless agreed otherwise between the parties. GCEN does not impose any charge or reduction on the Client for using a particular form of payment instrument.

13.3 In addition, GCEN is entitled to be reimbursed at the Client's expense with such expenses and fees as it incurs in performing the Services as are notified to the Client from time to time either before or after the relevant Service has been performed, and to modify such fees or rates from time to time, giving the Client written notice of not less than seven (7) days before introducing any such modifications.

13.4 GCEN may, without prior notice to the Client, set off any amount owing by the Client to it against any other amount owing by it to the Client, including amounts transferred to GCEN as Margin. In the event that any Margin is used to set-off any amounts owed by the Client, the Client shall immediately restore such Margin, as requested by GCEN; failing which GCEN may terminate any or all unfulfilled orders for Services or close out any open Transactions, and Client shall be responsible for any losses and charges suffered by GCEN as a result of such termination.

13.5 In addition to GCEN's rights specified in clause 13.4 above, GCEN's fees and charges payable, and any expenses or fees to be reimbursed pursuant to clause 13.3, for payment transactions in which the Client is the payee, GCEN may deduct the charges from the amount transferred before crediting the amount received. For payment transactions in which the Client is the payer, GCEN will transfer the full amount of the transaction, without deducting such charges, expenses or fees from the amount transferred, but the fees, charges and expenses shall be charged and added to the fees collected from the Client at the time of processing the transaction.

13.6 All fees due to GCEN and remaining unpaid, together with all bank, brokerage and other charges which the Client is obliged to bear but which have not yet been debited, shall be treated as due and payable. All amounts due to GCEN by the Client under this Agreement shall be paid by the Client to GCEN in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding.

14 Client's Warranties and Obligations
